Welcome to the 33rd Swanage Jazz Festival

We are delighted to feature a wide-ranging, jam packed programme with 50 top quality bands in the main, ticketed, programme. We are adding a second marquee on Sandpit Field and a new 'Sound of Jazz to Come' programme featuring new names and new musical variations of the venerable but ever-changing jazz tradition. Look out for future announcements on this. Alongside newer names we have festival favourites like Alan Barnes, Clark Tracey, Dave Newton, Greg Abate and Art Themen. And we are thrilled to welcome the much-loved Liane Carroll back to the Festival.

- ★ We are again offering a 10% discount to residents in BH19.
- ★ We are working with Purbeck Youth Music and will be offering heavily discounted tickets to young people in Purbeck. Look out for further announcements.
- ★ We are hoping to be working in partnership with Swanage Methodist Church to re-instate the popular Sunday morning Jazz Church Service. More on that in due course.

We are delighted to have secured funding from Arts Council England and Dorset Council and are grateful for their support. We hope you agree we have another great Festival line up for you.

We look forward to welcoming you to Swanage this July.

Paul Kelly, Chair, Swanage Jazz Festival
